New York Water Environment Association Presents Award for Most Students Members Recruited to Dr. Walter Saukin of Manhattan College

Syracuse – The New York Water Environment Association (NYWEA), a statewide organization of water quality management professionals, has awarded Walter Saukin, Ph.D, its annual Membership Recruitment Award for recruiting the most new student members. During NYWEA’s 92nd Annual Meeting Awards Luncheon on Wednesday, February 5, NYWEA President Robert Wither presented the award to Dr. Saukin.

Dr. Walter Saukin has been a faculty member at Manhattan College for the past 39 years, during which time he acted as Chair of the Civil Engineering Department for ten years. He has served the Association continuously in one form or another since February 1979. Dr. Saukin has held the positions of Executive Secretary of NYWEA for nine years and Chair of the Student Committee for more than 25 years. He has been the recipient of the Arthur Sidney Bedell Award and the Metropolitan Chapter’s Award of Merit.

About NYWEA: Founded in 1929 by professionals in the field of water quality as a nonprofit educational organization, NYWEA has 2,700 members statewide and hosts several technical conferences each year for environmental engineers, scientists, public officials and others who work in water and wastewater quality management. In addition, NYWEA sponsors a scholarship program, publishes Clear Waters, a quarterly educational magazine, and administers the wastewater operator certification program. NYWEA also supports humanitarian clean water projects. Headquartered in Syracuse, NYWEA has seven regional chapters, 14 college student chapters and is a Member Association of the international Water Environment Federation.
