André Dumas of Ballston Spa, NY Honored by NYWEA

Syracuse -- The New York Water Environment Association (NYWEA), a statewide organization of water quality management professionals, has selected André P. Dumas of Ballston Spa, NY, for its 2005 Arthur Sidney Bedell Award. The NYWEA will present the award which recognizes Dumas for dedicated service at its 78th Annual Meeting in New York City, February 6-8, 2006. Dumas has been an active NYWEA member for 20 years, serving on the Board of Directors of the Capital District Chapter for the last 18 years. He also has served on the NYWEA statewide board for six years.

Dumas is retired as assistant chief operator of the Saratoga County Sewer District #1 in Mechanicsville, NY, where he was employed 28 years. He lives in Ballston Spa with his wife, Sandra. They have four children.

NYWEA is a statewide, nonprofit organization of 2,100 water quality management professionals that promotes clean water programs and related technical education. Headquartered in Syracuse, NY, the NYWEA has seven regional chapters, 12 student chapters and is an affiliate of the international Water Environment Federation. For more information on NYWEA membership and programs, contact its Syracuse office at 315-422-7811, or visit the website: www.nywea.org.
