Louis Langone of Waterville, NY Honored by NYWEA

Syracuse -- The New York Water Environment Association (NYWEA), a statewide organization of water quality management professionals, has selected Louis Langone of Waterville, NY, for its 2005 Uhl T. Mann Award. The NYWEA will present the award recognizing excellence in treatment plant operations and maintenance at its 78th Annual Meeting in New York City, February 6-8, 2006.

Langone has been a NYWEA member for two years and is wastewater treatment plant operator for the Village of Waterville, where he has been employed for 22 years. He earned the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation's Region 6 Operation and Maintenance Award in 2003, and has won honors from the New York Rural Water Association. Langone resides in Waterville with his wife, Karen, and their two children.

NYWEA is a statewide, nonprofit organization of 2,100 water quality management professionals that promotes clean water programs and related technical education. Headquartered in Syracuse, NY, the NYWEA has seven regional chapters, 12 student chapters and is an affiliate of the international Water Environment Federation. For more information on NYWEA membership and programs, contact its Syracuse office at 315-422-7811, or visit the website: www.nywea.org.
