NYWEA Awards Ojpal Auluck of Staten Island

Syracuse – The New York Water Environment Association (NYWEA), a statewide nonprofit organization of water quality management professionals, awarded Ojpal S. Auluck of Staten Island, NY, the 2007 Uhl T. Mann Award at its 80th Annual Meeting held in February in New York City. The Mann Award recognizes “excellence in treatment plant operations and maintenance.” Auluck is Plant Superintendent for the Coney Island Water Pollution Control Plant in Brooklyn, and has been employed with the NYCDEP since 1991. Auluck, who is a five-year NYWEA member, holds a BS in electrical engineering and is licensed as a Grade 4A Wastewater Treatment Plant Operator.

NYWEA is a statewide, nonprofit organization of 2,300 environmental engineers and water quality management professionals that promotes clean water programs and related technical and public education. It sponsors a scholarship program to encourage careers in science and engineering and supports humanitarian assistance to provide clean water. Headquartered in Syracuse, NY, the NYWEA has seven regional chapters, 12 college student chapters and is a Member Association of the international Water Environment Federation (WEF).
