NYWEA Honors Lauren Myers of Forest Hills, NY

Syracuse – The New York Water Environment Association (NYWEA), a statewide membership organization of environmental engineers and water quality management professionals, recently honored Lauren J. Myers, 22, of Forest Hills, NY with the 2007 Student Chapter Service Award. Myers is a senior at The Cooper Union for the Advancement of Science and Art, majoring in its bachelor's degree program in engineering with a concentration in environmental engineering. She served the last two years as president of the NYWEA Student Chapter at The Cooper Union, and was its 2004 -'05 secretary. Myers hopes to go on to obtain her master's degree in environmental engineering and pursue a career in the field.

NYWEA is a statewide, nonprofit organization of 2,300 environmental engineers and water quality management professionals that promotes clean water programs and related technical and public education. It also sponsors a scholarship program to encourage careers in science and engineering and supports humanitarian assistance to provide clean water. Headquartered in Syracuse, NY, the NYWEA has seven regional chapters, 12 college student chapters and is a Member Association of the international Water Environment Federation (WEF).
