NYWEA Awards Keneck Skibinski of Little Falls

Syracuse -- Keneck Skibinski of Little Falls, NY was awarded the Membership Recruitment Award for Most New Members by the New York Water Environment Association (NYWEA), a statewide organization of leaders in water quality management, at the 81st Annual NYWEA Meeting held in February in New York City.

Skibinski is chief operator of the Herkimer County Sewer District Wastewater Plant. He has served NYWEA in various capacities for more than 25 years, a member of its Central Chapter. On the state level, Skibinski served as past president of NYWEA and has been active on the state board, currently chairing the Member Education Committee.

Founded in 1929 by professionals in the field of water quality as a nonprofit educational organization, NYWEA has 2,500 members statewide who historically have led the way toward state and national clean water programs. NYWEA hosts several technical conferences each year for environmental engineers, scientists, public officials and others who work in water and wastewater quality management. In addition, NYWEA sponsors a major scholarship program to encourage careers in science and engineering, publishes Clearwaters, a quarterly educational trade magazine, and supports humanitarian clean water projects. Headquartered in Syracuse, NY, NYWEA has seven regional chapters, 12 college student chapters and is a Member Association of the international Water Environment Federation (WEF).
